

TOTTERINGLY

Meaning: TOTTERINGLY: In a manner characterized by unsteady or shaky movement, often due to imbalance or instability.

1. She walked totteringly across the uneven cobblestones, trying to keep her balance.
2. The toddler moved totteringly toward his mother, eager to show her his new toy.
3. After a long day, he left the bar totteringly, struggling to maintain his composure.
4. The old man stood totteringly at the edge of the sidewalk, waiting for the light to change.
5. With her heels clicking on the pavement, she advanced totteringly, laughter bubbling from her lips.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/totteringly>