

TOUCH-ME-NOT

Meaning: Touch-me-not refers to a type of plant, particularly from the genus Mimosa, that reacts to touch by folding its leaves or closing its flowers.

1. The garden was filled with vibrant flowers, but the touch-me-not plants always caught my eye.
2. She warned the children to stay away from the touch-me-not bushes, as they would close up at the slightest contact.
3. In her delicate nature journal, she sketched the beautiful yet timid touch-me-not that shrank from her fingers.
4. The shy touch-me-not, known for its unique defensive mechanism, fascinated the students during their botany class.
5. As I leaned in to admire the touch-me-not flower, it instantly curled in response to my approach.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/touch-me-not>