

TOUCH

Meaning: TOUCH (verb): To make physical contact with something or to affect someone emotionally.

1. She reached out to touch the delicate petals of the flower.
2. The soft melody seemed to touch the depths of his soul.
3. With a gentle touch, he reassured her that everything would be okay.
4. The artist's brush left a beautiful mark with every touch on the canvas.
5. Their shared laughter had a way of touching the hearts of everyone around them.
6. Her gentle touch calmed the frightened child.
7. The artist's brush seemed to touch the canvas with grace.
8. He felt a warm touch on his shoulder and turned to see his friend.
9. The soft fabric had a luxurious touch that made it irresistible.
10. They shared a fleeting touch, a moment that felt electric.
11. The gentle touch of her hand calmed his racing heart.
12. He reached out to touch the soft petals of the flower.
13. The story of their friendship was a touch of warmth in his otherwise lonely life.
14. With a simple touch, the artist brought the canvas to life.
15. She felt a strange touch of nostalgia as she walked through her childhood neighborhood.