

TOUTER

Meaning: A 'touter' is a person who solicits or promotes goods or services, often in an aggressive or intrusive manner, typically to tourists or unsuspecting individuals.

1. The street vendor was a notorious tout, always trying to sell overpriced tickets to tourists.
2. In the bustling market, he spotted a touter aggressively promoting their services to unsuspecting shoppers.
3. She quickly learned to ignore the touters outside the stadium, focusing instead on enjoying the game.
4. The touter's persistent calls drew the attention of passersby, but few took the bait.
5. Despite the touter's charm, many locals preferred to buy their goods directly from the source.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/touter>