TOW

Meaning: TOW (verb): To pull or haul a vehicle or object behind another vehicle using a rope, chain, or other means.

1. The strong truck was able to tow the heavy trailer without any difficulty.
2. During the storm, the rescue team had to tow several stranded boats back to shore.
3. He used a rope to tow the broken-down car to the nearest garage.
4. They decided to tow the old van behind their RV for the road trip.
5. The yacht was designed to tow a smaller vessel safely across the bay.
6. The truck was equipped to tow the large boat to the marina.
7. She watched as the car struggled to tow the broken-down vehicle off the highway.
8. They decided to tow their camper behind the SUV for the weekend trip.
9. The strong rope was necessary to tow the heavy sled across the snowy landscape.
10. He used his pickup truck to tow the trailer filled with equipment to the job site.
11. The truck was able to tow the broken-down car to safety.
12. During the storm, they had to tow the boat back to the dock.
13. He offered to tow his friend's trailer for the weekend trip.
14. The rescue team used a powerful vehicle to tow the stranded van from the mud.
15. It’s important to check the towing capacity of your vehicle before hitting the road.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tow