

TOWALL

Meaning: 'TOWALL' (verb): to cover or coat something, such as a canvas or object, with a material or substance, often for protective or aesthetic purposes.

1. The artist decided to towall the canvas with vibrant colors to create a stunning visual impact.
2. During the storm, we had to towall our boat back to shore to avoid any damage.
3. After the accident, they needed a professional service to towall the damaged vehicle to the repair shop.
4. The team worked tirelessly to towall the heavy equipment to the construction site on time.
5. To ensure safety, the hiker had to towall his gear up the steep hill before the sunset.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/towall>