

TOWROPE

Meaning: Towrope: a strong rope or cable used for towing a vehicle or boat.

1. The sailor secured the towrope to the boat before setting off into the open sea.
2. In case of an emergency, it's crucial to have a sturdy towrope ready in the trunk of your vehicle.
3. During the rescue operation, the helicopter lowered a towrope to lift the stranded climber to safety.
4. The towrope snapped unexpectedly, causing the trailer to sway dangerously on the highway.
5. Always check the condition of your towrope before using it to ensure a safe towing experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/towrope>