

TOXICITY

Meaning: Toxicity refers to the degree to which a substance can harm living organisms, particularly in relation to chemicals and environmental factors.

1. The toxicity of the chemical was alarming and required immediate intervention.
2. Scientists are studying the long-term effects of environmental toxicity on marine life.
3. Increased toxicity in the soil has raised concerns among local farmers about crop safety.
4. The report highlighted the toxicity levels of various substances found in the water supply.
5. Understanding the toxicity of different plants is crucial for ensuring safe gardening practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toxicity>