

TOXICOLOGIST

Meaning: A toxicologist is a scientist who studies the effects of chemicals, substances, and toxins on living organisms and the environment.

1. The toxicologist conducted extensive research to understand the effects of the new pesticide on human health.
2. During the trial, the toxicologist provided expert testimony on the potential risks associated with the chemical exposure.
3. In her role as a toxicologist, she analyzed samples to identify harmful substances in the environment.
4. The findings of the toxicologist were crucial in developing safety guidelines for the use of hazardous materials.
5. After years of study, the toxicologist published a groundbreaking paper on the long-term effects of lead poisoning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toxicologist>