

TOYSHOP

Meaning: Toyshop: a retail store that sells toys and games for children.

1. The children pressed their noses against the glass of the toyshop, mesmerized by the colorful displays inside.
2. After weeks of saving her allowance, Mia finally had enough money to buy a new doll from the local toyshop.
3. The toyshop had a special section dedicated to educational toys that encouraged creativity and learning.
4. As we walked past the toyshop, the sound of laughter and excitement filled the air from the kids inside.
5. Every holiday season, the toyshop would host a festive event, attracting families from all over the neighborhood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toyshop>