

TRACKMAN

Meaning: Trackman: a person responsible for monitoring and analyzing the performance and times of athletes, particularly in track and field events or races.

1. The trackman carefully monitored the runners' times during the marathon.
2. Using advanced technology, the trackman was able to analyze every athlete's performance in real-time.
3. As a trackman, she had to ensure that all equipment was functioning correctly before the race.
4. The trackman's expertise was crucial in setting up the course for the national championships.
5. After the event, the trackman reviewed the data to provide feedback to the coaches and athletes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trackman>