

TRADELESS

Meaning: Tradeless refers to an economy or society that does not engage in trade or commerce, relying instead on subsistence practices and personal exchanges.

1. The tradeless economy of the island relied heavily on subsistence agriculture.
2. In a tradeless society, barter and personal relationships often took precedence over currency.
3. The artist's work was so unique that it remained tradeless, cherished only by those who understood its value.
4. Without any tradeless interactions, the community struggled to adapt to the changing market demands.
5. Her tradeless approach to fashion emphasized sustainability over commercialism.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tradeless>