

TRADUCEMENT

Meaning: Traducement refers to the act of speaking maliciously or falsely about someone, leading to damage to their reputation or character.

1. The artist felt that the traducement of her work by critics was unjust and purely subjective.
2. In his defense, he argued that the traducement of his character was fueled by jealousy rather than truth.
3. The traducement of historical figures often leads to a misunderstanding of their contributions.
4. She was deeply affected by the traducement of her personal life in the tabloid press.
5. Their traducement of the company's reputation resulted in a significant loss of business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/traducement>