

TRADUCINGLY

Meaning: In a manner that is defamatory or slanderous, often involving the spreading of false or misleading information.

1. He spoke traducingly about his rival, hoping to undermine his reputation.
2. The article was filled with traducingly exaggerated claims that distorted the truth.
3. She found it disheartening that her friends would speak traducingly behind her back.
4. Traducingly, he questioned her integrity without any evidence to support his claims.
5. The traducingly harsh criticism from the critics left the artist feeling vulnerable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/traducingly>