

TRADUCTIVE

Meaning: Traductive refers to the process of conveying or transforming meaning during translation, often resulting in nuanced changes.

1. The traductive nature of the translation process often leads to subtle shifts in meaning.
2. In her thesis, she examined the traductive methods used in translating ancient texts.
3. His approach was highly traductive, focusing on conveying the original intent rather than a literal translation.
4. The traductive challenges faced by translators can significantly impact the cultural context of the text.
5. Understanding the traductive elements involved can enhance our appreciation of literature across languages.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/traductive>