

TRAIN

Meaning: Train (verb): to prepare oneself or others for a specific activity or goal through practice and instruction.

1. She decided to train for the marathon, determined to improve her endurance.
2. The train whistle echoed through the valley as it approached the station.
3. He often found solace in the rhythmic sound of the train passing by his house at night.
4. To master the piano, you must train your fingers to move quickly and accurately.
5. The team worked diligently to train their new members in the company's protocols.
6. The train arrived at the station just as the sun began to set.
7. She decided to train for the marathon after being inspired by her friend's success.
8. The sound of the train whistle echoed through the valley, signaling its departure.
9. They watched the train speed by, its carriages a blur of colors against the landscape.
10. To improve his skills, the young musician would often train for hours each day.
11. The children were excited to watch the train speed by on the tracks.
12. She decided to train for the marathon after completing her first 5K.
13. The old train station was filled with memories of travelers from years past.
14. He had to train his dog to follow basic commands before taking it to the park.
15. We took the train to the city, enjoying the scenic views along the way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/train>