

TRAITOR

Meaning: TRAITOR: a person who betrays a trust or allegiance, especially by aiding an enemy.

1. She felt betrayed when she discovered that her closest friend had been a traitor all along.
2. In a dramatic twist, the hero revealed that he had been working with the enemy as a traitor from the beginning.
3. The community was divided, with some considering him a hero and others branding him a traitor for his decisions.
4. During the trial, the evidence presented painted him as a traitor to his country and its ideals.
5. The novel's antagonist was a cunning traitor, manipulating events from the shadows to achieve his goals.
6. He was branded a traitor after he leaked confidential information to a rival company.
7. The council considered her actions a betrayal of their trust, labeling her a traitor to the community.
8. During the trial, the defendant's defense attorney argued that he was not a traitor, but a whistleblower seeking justice.
9. In the eyes of his comrades, turning his back on the mission made him the ultimate traitor.
10. History remembers him as a traitor, but some argue he was merely a man acting out of desperation.
11. He was branded a traitor after he revealed the nation's secrets to a foreign power.
12. In the eyes of his comrades, his act of betrayal marked him as the ultimate traitor.
13. The novel explores the complex motivations behind the actions of a reluctant traitor.
14. During the trial, the accused maintained his innocence, insisting he was no traitor to his country.
15. History has often judged those called traitors more harshly than those who remain loyal.