

TRAITORLY

Meaning: TRAITORLY: Adjective describing actions or intentions that are disloyal or treacherous, especially toward a group or cause.

1. His traitorly actions left a lasting scar on the trust within the group.
2. She felt a wave of betrayal wash over her when she discovered his traitorly intentions.
3. The once-loyal soldier was branded as a traitorly figure after he switched sides in the war.
4. In the shadows, he plotted traitorly schemes that would ultimately lead to his downfall.
5. The novel's antagonist was a master of deception, using traitorly tactics to undermine the hero.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/traitorly>