

TRALATION

Meaning: Tralation: the process of translating or interpreting written texts to convey their meanings in another language or context.

1. The tralation of ancient texts can reveal hidden meanings and cultural insights.
2. Our project focuses on the tralation of scientific research papers to make them accessible to a broader audience.
3. She was fascinated by the tralation process, especially how nuances in language can change a message.
4. The team worked tirelessly to ensure the tralation was both accurate and culturally appropriate.
5. In literature, tralation can often shape the reader's interpretation of the original work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tralation>