

TRAMONTANA

Meaning: Tramontana refers to a cold, dry wind that blows from the mountains, often bringing a chill to the surrounding areas.

1. The tramontana swept down from the mountains, bringing a chill to the coastal town.
2. As the tramontana raged outside, we huddled by the fireplace with cups of hot cocoa.
3. Sailors often check the weather for signs of the tramontana, which can shift their plans drastically.
4. The locals believe the tramontana has a way of clearing the air, making the skies incredibly blue.
5. During the winter months, the intense tramontana can create stunning, snow-covered landscapes in the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tramontana>