

TRAMPER

Meaning: A tramper is a person who walks long distances, often on trails or in nature, typically for pleasure or exploration.

1. The tramper navigated the rugged trails with a sense of adventure.
2. After months of planning, she finally set off on her journey as a dedicated tramper.
3. The group of trampers gathered around the campfire, sharing stories of their latest hikes.
4. He enjoyed the solitude that came with being a tramper in the remote wilderness.
5. Equipped with a sturdy backpack, the tramper was ready to tackle the challenging terrain ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tramper>