

TRAMPLER

Meaning: Trampler: a person or thing that treads heavily or forcefully, causing damage or destruction to the ground or vegetation.

1. The trampler charged through the field, leaving a trail of destruction in its wake.
2. As the festival approached, the organizers worried about the impact of the trampler on the delicate flowerbeds.
3. In the crowded market, the careless trampler knocked over several stalls, causing chaos among the vendors.
4. The documentary highlighted the plight of the endangered species that the trampler had disturbed in its habitat.
5. With each step, the trampler crushed the fragile ecosystem beneath its massive feet, leading to environmental concerns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/trampler>