

TRANCE

Meaning: A trance is a state of deep absorption or concentration, often characterized by a loss of awareness of one's surroundings.

1. The music was so captivating that I slipped into a trance, losing all sense of time.
2. Her eyes glazed over as she entered a trance, completely absorbed in the moment.
3. He watched the dancers in a trance, mesmerized by their fluid movements and vibrant costumes.
4. The hypnotist's voice guided her into a deep trance, allowing her to access memories long forgotten.
5. Sitting by the fire, he fell into a trance, reflecting on the events of the past year.
6. She danced in a trance, completely lost in the rhythm of the music.
7. The mesmerizing lights at the concert put the audience in a collective trance.
8. He fell into a trance, blocking out all distractions as he focused on his artwork.
9. The meditation session left her in a peaceful trance, feeling more connected to herself.
10. The storyteller's voice was so captivating that it drew everyone into a trance.
11. She felt as though she were in a trance as the music enveloped her.
12. The hypnotist guided him into a deep trance, where his mind became completely open to suggestion.
13. As she stared at the flickering candle, a sense of calm washed over her, pulling her into a trance.
14. The dancer moved gracefully, captivating the audience and putting them into a collective trance.
15. After hours of meditation, he emerged from his trance with a newfound clarity and purpose.