

TRANSACTING

Meaning: Transacting refers to the act of engaging in a business deal or conducting a financial exchange.

1. The two companies are currently transacting a significant deal that could reshape the industry.
2. When transacting online, it is crucial to ensure that the website is secure to protect personal information.
3. She felt a sense of accomplishment after successfully transacting her first real estate purchase.
4. Transacting business in multiple currencies can often lead to complications and hidden fees.
5. The app simplifies transacting by allowing users to send and receive payments instantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transacting>