

TRANSCENDENTALIST

Meaning: A transcendentalist is a person who advocates for the philosophical movement that emphasizes the inherent goodness of people and nature, prioritizing individual intuition and spiritual experience over traditional authority and materialism.

1. The transcendentalist movement of the 19th century emphasized the importance of individual intuition over established doctrine.
2. Ralph Waldo Emerson is often regarded as one of the foremost figures in the American transcendentalist tradition.
3. Many contemporary environmentalists draw inspiration from transcendentalist ideals about the relationship between humanity and nature.
4. The transcendentalist philosophy advocates for a deep connection to the natural world as a source of spiritual insight.
5. In his writings, Thoreau exemplified the transcendentalist belief in self-reliance and the pursuit of personal truth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transcendentalist>