

TRANSCRIBBLER

Meaning: Transcribber: a person or tool that converts spoken language from audio recordings into written text.

1. The transcribber worked tirelessly to ensure every word from the audio was captured accurately.
2. She used a transcribber to convert the recorded lectures into editable text for her research.
3. With the help of a transcribber, the team was able to complete their project ahead of schedule.
4. His transcribber software could automatically detect and correct errors in the transcription process.
5. The transcribber provided a valuable service for journalists who needed quick turnaround on interviews.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transcribber>