

TRANSCRIPTIVE

Meaning: Transcriptive refers to the process of converting spoken or written content into a written format, often emphasizing accuracy and detail.

1. The professor provided a transcriptive analysis of the interviews to highlight key themes.
2. Her transcriptive skills were evident as she accurately captured every detail of the lecture.
3. The transcriptive nature of the research allowed for a comprehensive examination of participant responses.
4. As a transcriptive method, verbatim transcription ensures that all spoken words are preserved.
5. The team emphasized the importance of transcriptive accuracy in documenting the meeting discussions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transcriptive>