

TRANSFER

Meaning: TRANSFER (verb): To move or convey something from one place, person, or account to another.

1. She decided to transfer her savings to a higher interest account.
2. The company plans to transfer several employees to their new office in Chicago.
3. He struggled to transfer his ideas onto paper during the writing process.
4. The university allows students to transfer credits from other institutions.
5. They will transfer the ownership of the property once the deal is finalized.
6. The bank will transfer the funds to your account by the end of the day.
7. She decided to transfer to a different university for her final year.
8. The coach plans to transfer his best player to a rival team next season.
9. You can easily transfer your data from your old phone to the new one using the app.
10. The company intends to transfer its headquarters to a more central location.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transfer>