

TRANSFERRER

Meaning: Transferrer: a person or entity that transfers ownership, rights, or data from one party to another.

1. The transferrer ensured that all necessary documents were signed before the transaction.
2. In the digital realm, the transferrer played a crucial role in moving data securely between servers.
3. To finalize the agreement, the transferrer had to verify the identity of the receiving party.
4. The bank required the transferrer to provide proof of ownership for the assets being transferred.
5. During the audit, the transferrer was praised for their attention to detail in the record-keeping process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transferrer>