

TRANSFERRIBLE

Meaning: Transferrible: capable of being passed or assigned from one person or entity to another.

1. The rights to the artwork are transferrible to any buyer upon sale.
2. In some cases, benefits from the program may be transferrible to family members.
3. The contract included a clause stating that the lease was not transferrible without written consent.
4. He discovered that the warranty for the product was transferrible to a new owner.
5. Certain membership privileges are transferrible, allowing friends to enjoy the perks as well.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transferrible>