

TRANSFIXING

Meaning: Transfixing: causing someone to become captivated or mesmerized, often to the point of being unable to look away.

1. The breathtaking view from the mountaintop was transfixing, drawing all eyes toward the horizon.
2. As the magician performed his final trick, the audience sat transfixed in awe of his skill.
3. The artist's use of color in the painting was transfixed, capturing the essence of the scene perfectly.
4. She spoke with such passion that her words had a transfixing effect on everyone in the room.
5. The novel's gripping plot was transfixed, making it impossible for readers to put it down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transfixing>