

TRANSFIXION

Meaning: Transfixion: a state of intense fascination or mesmerization that captivates attention completely.

1. The artist's breathtaking sculpture created a transfixion among the visitors at the gallery.
2. During the horror movie, the sudden twist in the plot left the audience in a state of transfixion.
3. Her captivating performance had a transfixion effect on everyone in the theater, rendering them speechless.
4. As the sun set over the horizon, the beauty of the landscape induced a moment of transfixion in the hikers.
5. The unexpected announcement caused a transfixion in the crowd, all eyes glued to the stage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transfixion>