

TRANSLUENT

Meaning: Transfluent refers to materials or effects that allow light to pass through while also reflecting it, creating a visually captivating interplay of transparency and color.

1. The artist's use of color created a transfluent effect, allowing the layers to interact in mesmerizing ways.
2. Transfluent materials have the unique ability to reflect light while allowing some transparency, creating a stunning visual experience.
3. In the world of architecture, transfluent glass is increasingly popular for its ability to balance privacy and natural light.
4. Nature often exhibits transfluent properties, as seen in the way sunlight filters through leaves, casting intricate patterns on the ground.
5. The designer chose a transfluent fabric for the curtains, ensuring that the room remained bright without sacrificing privacy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transfluent>