

TRANSIENT

Meaning: Transient: lasting for a short time; temporary or fleeting.

1. The transient nature of the seasons always leaves me in awe.
2. As a traveler, he cherished the transient moments shared with strangers.
3. The city's nightlife is vibrant, but its popularity is often transient.
4. Despite their transient existence, the fireflies lit up the evening sky beautifully.
5. She found beauty in the transient phases of life, embracing change with grace.
6. The transient nature of the seasons always brings a sense of renewal.
7. Visitors to the city often find themselves captivated by its transient beauty during sunset.
8. His stay in the small town was transient, yet it left a lasting impression on him.
9. Many scientists study transient phenomena to better understand complex systems.
10. The transient population of the festival created a vibrant and lively atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transient>