

TRANSIT

Meaning: Transit refers to the act of passing through or the transportation system used for moving people or goods from one place to another.

1. The city implemented a new transit system to reduce traffic congestion.
2. During our trip, we had a long transit period in the airport before our connecting flight.
3. The artist's latest exhibit explores the theme of transit and transformation in urban life.
4. Public transit offers an eco-friendly alternative to driving alone.
5. The transit of the planet across the star was an event witnessed by astronomers worldwide.
6. During the transit of the solar eclipse, thousands gathered to witness the phenomenon.
7. She felt a sense of calm during her daily transit on the train through the countryside.
8. The shipment is currently in transit and should arrive at the warehouse by tomorrow.
9. Transit options between the airport and city center have improved significantly this year.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transit>