

TRANSITION

Meaning: Transition: the process or period of changing from one state, condition, or phase to another.

1. The transition from childhood to adulthood can be both exciting and challenging.
2. Many businesses struggle during the transition to a more digital-focused operation.
3. She made a seamless transition from the corporate world to entrepreneurship.
4. The artist's work reflects a transition from abstract forms to more realistic representations.
5. Climate change requires a global transition to renewable energy sources to mitigate its effects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transition>