

TRANSLATITIOUS

Meaning: Translaticious (adjective): possessing a quality that transcends cultural boundaries or facilitates cross-cultural understanding and expression.

1. The artist's work had a translaticious quality that transcended cultural boundaries.
2. In her lecture, she explored the translaticious nature of contemporary literature.
3. His ability to convey emotions through translaticious expressions captivated the audience.
4. The film's translaticious themes resonated deeply with viewers from diverse backgrounds.
5. She admired the translaticious fusion of different musical styles in the performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/translatitious>