

TRANSLATIVE

Meaning: Translative refers to the process or aspect of conveying meaning and context from one language to another, particularly in relation to cultural understanding and accuracy in translation.

1. The translative aspect of language learning emphasizes the importance of understanding cultural context.
2. In linguistics, a translative approach can enhance the accuracy of translations between languages.
3. The professor explained how translative strategies can facilitate effective communication in multilingual settings.
4. During the workshop, participants practiced translative techniques to better convey their ideas across different languages.
5. Understanding the translative function of a word can significantly impact its interpretation in various contexts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/translative>