

TRANSLATORSHIP

Meaning: Translatorship refers to the profession or role of translating written or spoken content from one language to another.

1. Her passion for languages led her to pursue a career in translatorship.
2. The diplomats relied heavily on the skillful translatorship of their team during international negotiations.
3. After years of study, he finally received his certification in translatorship, enabling him to work in various fields.
4. The complexity of legal documents necessitates a high level of expertise in translatorship to avoid misunderstandings.
5. She shared her experiences in translatorship at the conference, highlighting the challenges and rewards of the profession.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/translatorship>