

TRANSLATORY

Meaning: Translatory: relating to the act of transferring or transporting something from one place or context to another.

1. The translatory function of the protein ensures that nutrients are efficiently transported across the cell membrane.
2. In linguistics, a translatory approach can help bridge the gap between different cultural contexts.
3. The study focused on the translatory effects of language on cognitive development in children.
4. Her translatory skills were evident when she flawlessly interpreted the complex scientific paper into layman's terms.
5. The translatory mechanism in the ecosystem plays a crucial role in the transfer of energy between trophic levels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/translatory>