

TRANSMITTER

Meaning: A transmitter is a device that sends out signals, such as radio waves, for communication purposes.

1. The radio transmitter was crucial for broadcasting the live concert to thousands of listeners.
2. Scientists developed a new transmitter that significantly improved the range of the wireless signal.
3. The old transmitter in the tower needed to be replaced to ensure clear communication for the emergency services.
4. Her phone acted as a transmitter, converting her voice into digital signals for the call.
5. The satellite transmitter sent high-definition images back to Earth, revolutionizing our understanding of the planet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transmitter>