

TRANSPARE

Meaning: Transpar (verb): To become clear or see-through, often used metaphorically to describe the act of revealing one's true feelings or intentions.

1. The glass was so clean that it seemed to transpar, making the world outside appear almost unreal.
2. She wanted to transpar her feelings, but the fear of rejection held her back.
3. In a truly transparent organization, all decisions and processes are clear to everyone involved.
4. The artist chose to transpar her emotions through vibrant colors and bold strokes.
5. To build trust, leaders must transpar their intentions and actions with sincerity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transpare>