

TRANSPLANTATION

Meaning: Transplantation is the medical procedure of transferring an organ or tissue from one body to another to replace a damaged or failing organ.

1. Transplantation of organs has revolutionized modern medicine and saved countless lives.
2. The success of heart transplantation depends on the careful matching of donor and recipient.
3. Advancements in stem cell research may lead to new methods of transplantation in the future.
4. Many patients face a long wait for suitable organs for transplantation, highlighting the need for more donors.
5. Ethical considerations surrounding transplantation continue to spark debate among healthcare professionals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transplantation>