

TRANSPLENDENT

Meaning: Transplendent (adjective): characterized by an extraordinary and radiant beauty that evokes deep emotion and admiration.

1. The artist's latest painting was a transplendent display of color and emotion, captivating all who beheld it.
2. As the sun set over the horizon, the sky transformed into a transplendent tapestry of oranges, pinks, and purples.
3. Her smile had a transplendent quality, illuminating the entire room and lifting everyone's spirits.
4. The choir's harmonies were so transplendent that they seemed to transport the audience to another realm.
5. In the heart of the forest, the waterfall cascaded with a transplendent beauty that took my breath away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transplendent>