

TRANSPORT

Meaning: Transport (verb): To carry or convey goods or people from one place to another.

1. The new railway system promises to transport goods more efficiently across the country.
2. She decided to transport her plants in the back of her SUV during the move.
3. Transporting delicate instruments requires careful planning and special packaging.
4. The company specializes in the transport of hazardous materials to ensure safety.
5. Public transport is an essential service that connects communities and reduces traffic congestion.
6. The city implemented a new transport system to reduce traffic congestion.
7. The transport of goods across the country has become more efficient with modern logistics.
8. She decided to transport her belongings by train for the cross-country move.
9. Public transport options, such as buses and trains, are essential for urban mobility.
10. He found it challenging to transport his bicycle on the crowded subway during rush hour.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transport>