

TRANSPORTANT

Meaning: Transportant: a substance or molecule that aids in the movement or transfer of materials across biological membranes or within systems.

1. The transportant used in the experiment was carefully selected for its efficiency.
2. In the study of cellular biology, the term transportant refers to molecules that facilitate movement across membranes.
3. Researchers discovered that the transportant plays a crucial role in nutrient absorption in the gut.
4. In logistics, a reliable transportant is essential for ensuring timely delivery of goods.
5. The transportant's unique properties allow it to cross barriers that other substances cannot.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transportant>