

TRANSPORTER

Meaning: Transporter: a person or device that carries or conveys goods or individuals from one place to another.

1. The transporter carefully loaded the fragile cargo onto the truck.
2. In science fiction movies, the transporter is often depicted as a device that instantly moves people across vast distances.
3. The role of the transporter is crucial in the logistics chain, ensuring that goods reach their destination on time.
4. He worked as a transporter for a major shipping company, traveling across state lines to deliver packages.
5. The innovative transporter design revolutionized the way we think about moving goods in the modern era.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transporter>