

TRANSSHIPMENT

Meaning: Transshipment refers to the transfer of goods from one mode of transportation to another during the shipping process, often at a port or terminal.

1. Transshipment at the port can significantly reduce delivery times for international shipping.
2. The logistics company specializes in the transshipment of goods between different transportation modes.
3. Understanding the regulations around transshipment is crucial for businesses involved in global trade.
4. Transshipment allows for efficient cargo handling, especially when transferring containers between ships.
5. They implemented a new system to optimize the transshipment process and minimize delays.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transshipment>