

TRANSVASATION

Meaning: Transvasation refers to the movement or transfer of fluids or substances across blood vessel walls, often relevant in medical contexts such as fluid management and drug delivery.

1. Transvasation of fluids in the body can lead to serious medical complications if not monitored properly.
2. The research team focused on the transvasation process to improve drug delivery systems.
3. In some animal studies, excessive transvasation was observed in response to inflammation.
4. Understanding transvasation is crucial for developing effective treatments for vascular disorders.
5. The scientist explained how transvasation affects tissue hydration and nutrient transport.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/transvasation>