

TRAVERTINE

Meaning: Travertine is a porous, sedimentary rock often used as a building material, characterized by its natural patterns and textures, commonly found in countertops and tiles.

1. The bathroom was elegantly designed with a sleek travertine countertop that added a touch of luxury.
2. She admired the natural patterns in the travertine tiles that adorned the spacious foyer of the villa.
3. Travertine is often chosen for outdoor patios due to its durability and resistance to extreme weather conditions.
4. The ancient Roman structures, many of which were built from travertine, still stand as a testament to its enduring quality.
5. After a long search, they finally found a beautiful travertine slab for their kitchen island that matched their vision perfectly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/travertine>